Service Organizations Fete New Members at Ceremonies

White Key and Blue Key Choose Fifteen New Pledges

White Key and Blue Key, campus honorary service organizations, announced the pledging of 15 new members. Chosen for outstanding scholarship and activity, the new members of both units were honored by old members at a special ceremony.

Believing in the old adage that "the early bird gets the worm," members of White Key, the honorary service organization for outstanding junior and senior girls, selected six girls on Monday morning honor them with bids to the organization.

Those who were unanimously elected to the sorority by the actives, were chosen on the basis of scholarship and student body activities.

New members are: Joy Swaberg, dramatics; Elaine Nichols, AWS secretary; Ada Moulton, junior prom, dramatic AWS vice-president; Caroline Sorenson, program; Knight Hall, chairman; Rhoda Vaun Call, music; Ardath Lefler, dramatics and Y NEWS student editor.

Alfred Andrew, president, conducted the pledging ceremonies at 6 a.m. Tuesday in the reception room of the Joseph Smith building, where breakfast was served in the clubhouse of the Smith building.

Georgia Faus has been appointed godmother for the new pledges.

Blue Key, national honor fraternity, honored nine new members at a pledging dinner held at the home of Dr. de Jong on March 13.

Arthur Babbel, president, presided at the pledging. Dr. F. A. Christensen, sponsor of the chapter, was the special guest, and Dr. de Jong was a host and special speaker.

The new pledges are: Ernest Wilson, Harden Benson, Ross Nilsen, Wessell Brockbank, Ned Welling, Herman Green, Leo Vernon, Vert Taylor, and Odell Christensen.

Blue Key is a national service fraternity, honoring as members outstanding men students chosen because of their high scholarship and ability in extra-curricular activities.

Ordinarily only upper-classmen are eligible to be taken into the fraternity, but because of the unusual number of fellows, a few sophomores were admitted this year.

Student debaters of Brigham Young University received an invitation to attend a debate meet at the University of Southern California to discuss the national question of "Nationalization of National Defense."

After considering the offer it was necessary to decline because transportation and other conditions did not make it feasible to attend.

Fraternity Presents "My Buddy" Dance as Tribute To BYU's Fallen Heroes of Second World War

Predicting this to be the best dance of the year, Blue Key president, Arthur Babbel announced the Blue Key informal dance to be held to-night from 8 to 11 in the Smith building.

With "My Buddy" as its theme the proceeds from this will go towards the purchase of a plaque in commemoration of the memory of former BYU students who made the supreme sacrifice in the service of their country during the present world conflict, it was announced.

Providing plenty of refreshments, gaiety, and decorations, co-chairmen Ralph Frogley and Clyde Sullivan are to be assisted by Harden Johnson and Ross Nilsen with the decorations, Eugene Faux with refreshments, and Homer Bartholomew with the program.

The band—led by Ross Nilsen and his orchestra—will provide music to the music. This being both a girl's and men's choice affair, students are advised to get their favorite card by writing her name on the back of their ticket and presenting it at the door.

Tickets may be purchased at $1.00 per couple from Blue Key members whose names are posted in the library and from cadets Erwin Schwartz and Ross Copen.

The dance and the winner will be crowded during the intermission.

Assisting Miss Hafen are Mrs. Mary Hafen and Mrs. Mary Young, who are in charge of refreshments; Pat Hatch, Carol Collard, and Jackie Wrage, who are in charge of the contest queen.

Contestants will be free to attend the dance that evening if they are still here.

Queen Will Reign At Banyan Ball Friday, March 24

Promising a "queen of the century" for glamour and beauty and his band for music, Marvin Hafen and his committee are aiming to make Friday, March 24 a success. The dance will be sponsored by the Banyan under the direction of Ruth England, production editor.

Nominations will be made for the queen at the annual Banyan assembly, with the whole student body participating. The five most popular candidates will be chosen on the basis of their popularity the following night may vote for their favorite card by writing her name on the back of their ticket and presenting it at the door.

The queen will be crowned during the dance and the winner will be crowded during the intermission.

Future Peace Rests Upon Nations' Acceptance of International Responsibility, Dr. Hambro Avers

Lecturing on the subject "How to attain the peace," Dr. Carl J. Hambro, former president of the League of Nations assembly, told a large Provo audience Wednesday night that the building of the future peace depends in a large measure upon the willingness of men to accept the responsibility of nations to accept to what he termed the "problem of peace" which we must wrestle with during the remainder of the war, the eminent Norwegian statesman declared.

He inferred that the peoples of the world, reared in national狭隘的 attitudes and bound by the process of educating thinking citizens along international instead of national lines, would have to take a step toward understanding and the promotion of justice.

The teaching of history, he pointed out, is a responsibility. Too often attitudes hostile to international understanding are promoted simply by such seemingly innocent means.

Dr. Hambro discussed conditions existing in Europe today. He said that disease and famine, among other causes, occupied territories. During a question period that followed the regular lecture, he stated that in his own country, Germany, the most underground resistance is being shown by the Nazi conquerors.

The public is invited to attend.

The burdens of the peace will have to be shouldered by a few, he declared. He recommended that a place for peace be built upon a constitution somewhat like our United States constitution.

The burdens of the peace will

Prexy Announces Dates of AWS Election

Election for next year's officers of Associated Women Students will be under way soon, according to Emma Hayes, Provo, president. Ballots will be handed to each club and each is invited to select one or two candidates for each office.

Miss Hayes advises that the new president must be a junior girl and it would be best if she were also a Mentor, although the latter is not necessary. The vice-president, secretary and recorder should be chosen from either the sophomore or junior class.

The petition blanks must be in by March 24 and will be handed to any of the AWS officers: Emma Hayes, president; Velma Bates, recorder-leader; Elaine Nichols, secretary and Ada Moulton, vice-president.

Primary elections will be conducted March 27, the first day of registration. The present officers are planning to set up booths in the Maser Auditorium so that the girls may vote when they register. Final elections will follow up the primary elections. The exact date has not yet been set.

The future officers will assist the present officers in the Girl's Day program which will be May 4. Girls' Day will be May 10 this year. Instead of the traditional dance there will be a hike.

Arrau Impresses Provincians

Chicago Arrau's concert last Thursday evening in the tabernacle made a great impression on Provo music lovers. With his splendid technical equipment and keen musical perception he was able to interpret the music of the great masters of the music he was playing. The Mozart and Beethoven numbers were especially well received.

This was Mr. Arrau's first appearance in Provo, but he has, however, gained an enviable reputation elsewhere throughout the country in the three seasons since his New York debut in 1941.

Rumors Still Fly in Thick on ASTP Situation

Rumors, the bane of the armed forces, hit the BYU campus stronger than ever this week with reports of dissolution-of-various AST units throughout the country.

However, despite all rumors and reports, cadets in BYU's ASTO unit are still functioning, the sixth year of their third year at the Y and are scheduled to receive college credit for all work they have completed in the basic engineering phase of ASTP.

The fate of complete closure of a BYU unit as well as others throughout the nation was somewhat clarified in a new issue of the AST Program booklet hitting the month this month when 17-year old recruits began arriving at some colleges to replace those soldiers who have been called up and are reported to be being activated for overseas duty. Colorado State college has received such students and the University of Wyoming is taking in the 18-year old recruits. A publication that a shipment of 17-year olds was expected in the near future.

Regarding the eventual destination of the ASTO unit, Major Charles E. Powell, Unit Commandant stated yesterday, "In my opinion, there is considerable material in the unit and whether or not it is true that the training of these men will be discontinued in its present phase, these cadets are earmarked for further training in the future regardless of any rumors or general changes which may be ordered."

Major Powell also removed about the rumors that are flying about Provo. "There has been no foundation for any of the talk heard on the campus up to the present time, other than the message from the Secretary of War which came to the Y in the Y NEWS February 24." That information was in regard to the eventual closure of basic training schools and he said that one of the main parts of the plan of operations which has washed into Provo Canyon.

Any information of interest regarding the unit will be issued as quickly as it is possible and practical, the Commandant said yesterday.

To the Unsung . . .

Ranking high among numerous other campus unsung heroes are the students who plan and direct the BYU student assemblies.

The student assemblies are an important part of campus life at BYU. Looking back, we recall our utter amazement when we saw our first BYU assembly. We remember last year's huge programs which usually featured either a mammoth burlesque skit, a fifty-voice chorus, or both. In most instances, it is impossible to produce such assemblies this year.

Nostalgia, however, does not prevent us from recognizing the splendid efforts of the students behind the student assemblies and the results of their efforts.

It is safe to say, we believe, that not more than 10% of the student body ever participate in student assemblies. The percentage may be a little higher, but at any rate it is small. This, of course, is the fault of no one except the students.

The students who plan, rehearse, and direct the student assemblies deserve a great deal of praise for their efforts. Due to their efforts, the problem of attendance at student assemblies is practically nonexistent.

We will agree that we have not seen the near-colossal programs that were presented at the Y last year, but the programs that have been presented have been the result of many hours of hard, conscientious work.

We salute the "behind-the-scenes" students who produce the BYU student assemblies.

This 'n That

By Mave 'n Pat

Hi, and all that old rot! We had a real hard struggle this week writing el column, cramming for final tests and all. When the end of the quarter rolls around and all the teachers grade out with the exams, we always wish we were out instead of so darned good looking! (But why are you laughing—that isn't a joke.)

Point of the week:

ODE TO EXAMS

Of all the seasons of the year
Exam week is to us most dear,
We love to fill in the little blanks
So to our teachers, we here give thanks.
If they knew how we appreciate
The little tests that mock us daily
They'd give us one a day in all.
Or more, if we could—we're small
And so Tanner, on Omond, on Hansen
And Snow.

Give your nasty old tests—you're not adding to our woes.

(The moral to this story is: Don't study like us or you'll write warped poems like this that will kill us.)

Even though he couldn't pass out cigars Dr. Bryner boasted the fact the other day that something new had been added to his family tree—a baby.

Another word about our thumbbling class, when we get out of there every Tuesday and Thursday we feel just like Hollywood and Vine. More girls walk over us than any other place in the world. Newest candidates for the "Left Finger

David Hall has completed his most recent "Record Book." It is a fine encyclopedia of record information both jazz and legit.

Benny Goodman is in Hollywood for the filming of a new movie in which his orchestra will star. The tentative title is "Sweet and Lowdown," and is believed to be one of the finest of this type of pictures made.

Leopold Stokowski is getting help to the old job having been seen recently digging many of the hot bands in New York.

Haye James and Woody Herman have recently received their A-1 classifications. Charlie Spivak and Barner are still 4-F.

The English pianist Don Coeckel Choromanski entertained BYUites at a bazaar program this year, recently waxed a disc of Russian tunes.

For some hot jazz waxes, its the Columbia Chorus Queen with Hawkins, Eldridge, Teddy Wilson, Cole and Billy Taylor.

"I Only Have Eyes for You," "Sweetie," "I'm in the Mood for Love" and "Bean at the Met."

Speaking of MacCartur, we would like to know how come he was met at the door early Sunday morning by a committee who knew just what he did on Saturday night before he even knew himself? We guess that that will have to remain a mystery until one of you who is in the know kicks through with the info.

Could it really have been Wurdeman whom we saw on Saturday evening sound asleep and peacefully snoring on the shoulder of a lovely red-head, while she still had life and love in her one eye? Why do some guys have a chance every week end to make a decision like that, when we haven't had a date for three weeks?

Would like to stop this drivel for just a moment to wish good luck to a couple of swell ladies, Dona Bill and Dr. Harris, who seem to be on the way to a life of happiness. Personally, we can't see waiting until they are married to kiss the lucky woman, we'd like to start an institution of kissing the poor misguided creature when she gets engaged—and when she gets married.

Our telescopic eye once again turns to Knight Hall to investigate the conditions there. The next is a direct quote from the May 13, 1943, issue of THE Y NEWS, entered under the head of DIDDIE DADDIE, by someone who called herself MBT. She was more ashamed than we are, it says: "With the stockade shortage it's dangerous for girls to go to Knight Hall to risk them crawling through the first floor windows after hours."

Ruth England, editor of this year's Banyan is standing over us with a gun right now and demanding that the Banyan be played up this week. If any of you kiddies want a copy of the Banyan please contact Bill; he would be only too happy to make his commission. The only way we can get Banyan in again is to mention it once more which we refuse to do. Lay that pistol down, we're not afraid to do.

Dave is feeling blue tonight because his woman went home and the little brother just had to go on furlough and the son has it already that he is sleeping out. Isn't it funny how fast the stories get around. When he came back from furlough he was married. He was very happy that someone told him or he wouldn't have known what he did while he was home.

Some body is hitting us on the shoulder and asking for the typewriter to write to the local Loan Office. Oh—pardon me, Dr. Harris, I was just going!

Third Hand Club" are Ora Timples and Verena Ursenbach.

We want to wish the Provo high school all the luck in the world in their forthcoming venture into the city, Salt Lake, to participate in the State basketball tournament. We hope it will be a case of "local boys make good." We're not really prejudiced, it says here.

Thought for today: In most normal communities, spring starts in March—then there's Provo.

YC's to Honor White Key Girls At Dinner Party

Joseph St. Patrick will reign (in spirit), over the festive banquet being held tomorrow evening, March 17 in the Joseph Smith banquet hall, when the Y Club will pay off its contribution to the White Key members.

In the bond selling campaign held recently on and off the campus, before the various honorary societies, the rule was that the loser would take the winner to a dinner, and so tomorrow evening will be the triumphant White Key members, subjecting the penalty to the defeat d'gee.

The dinner will take the form of a buffet supper, which will be followed by games.

YC members in charge of the arrangements are Lucy Ladlow, Athene Kusen, Rose Drissel, and Ruth Peterson, chairman.

Group Celebrates Anniversary

Celebrating the sixth birthday of the chapter, members of the Xi chapter of Phi Chi Theta enjoyed a formal banquet last Saturday evening in the Fourth ward hall in Springville.

Yellow and lavender flowers helped carry out the "Springtime" theme, and tiny animals and people proved attractive as table decorations. Covers were laid for 40 guests.

A short history of the club was given by the chapter president, Yvonne Maynard, and during the dinner, two numbers were played by Anna Jean Bullock, Mae Sevy, and June West. Following the dinner, March Greenlaw read a three-act play.

The committee in charge of arrangements included: Ruth Peterson, Phyllis Jensen, and Helen Stapley.

CIVILIAN COMMENT ...

While our neighbors to the north enjoyed a week of leisurely spring vacationing, Y students alternately took up tennis and skating in that well-known spirit of fun before taking on final exams.

Midshipmen Bob Bean, Rhoda Vause Call, Sterling Sessions, and Marge Hart seemed to prefer skating, as all four are proudly wearing the "skating" certificate.

Working on the tennis courts last Saturday were a number of the more venturesome civilian students. Dot Larch and Ruth Johnson were about the only feminine athletes abroad.

The social calendar wasn't exactly crowded this week, but a number of thoughts do flash into mind . . .

We recall seeing a number of smiling young girls proudly leading their colleagues down to the Provo tabernacle last Wednesday . . . just like when Hitler marched into Austria, more or less . . .

And there was the little White Key, YC, and Cadet "jam session" on Thursday . . . thanks to the Army, girls from Knight Hall and basement apartments get one balanced meal per month.

Speaking of the leisurely time being had by U. of U. students during the past week, Provo had several visitors from the University. Algene Ballif of Provo, who is the star of the forthcoming production of "Romeo and Juliet" at the University, spent the week at home, visiting old friends in Provo. Her next-door neighbor, freshman Dianne Merrill was also seen about town. Former BYU students Mabel Christensen, Shirley Hagan, who was visiting her sister Peggy at Knight Hall, seemed to be enjoying their return to the campus.

Concert Conductor: Last week's lyceum was one of the best, even if a few people in the audience didn't seem to realize it. We especially liked the encores, however, although the majority of the time towards the exit was not very complimentary accompaniment to Mr. Artau's playing.

Looks as if Phyllis Barnes has switched positions again. Former girl, Hilda Bartholomew, reported that her new date was Mimi Snell, while Phyllis was enjoying the music with Wayne Wayne.

Morely Quirks: What is the attraction that the "U" holds for Elaine Gwynn and Marjorie Taylor? What social unit does Mabel Stewart belong to? Does Fred Homer really rate with Wayne Wayne?

Quirks that Irk: People who crack their genn, glide in the b-assembly and who continually talk in the assembly . . . Girls with angular legs—are you guilty?

Civilian morale dropped to a new low when the civilian girls refused to let the YCs in. While YCs present them with Good Conduct medals in the traditional French manner . . . Quite a blow to the girls' pride wasn't it?

Personalities of the week: Mary Lou Oster—luscious lashes.

Vivie Monroe—pleasantly voices her opinion of the new coquette . . . Joe King's haircut.

Quiz of the week: Jean Dickmore will no doubt rip out at least 50 per cent of above literary masterpiece. But that's life.

O. S. Trovata Unit Slates Informal Dance March 25

Committee members are rapidly completing plans for an informal unit dance which will be held on March 25 in the Joseph Smith building banquet hall.

Chairman Alma Deppe reported that a date has been chosen, which will not be revealed until the night of the dance. Alumni members and their partners will be special guests for the evening.

Girls assisting Miss Deppe in making arrangements for the party are Jessie Keeler, Marian Owens, and Shirley Romay.

Fidelas Committees Appointed

Thursday, March 9, Fidelas members attended their regular monthly meeting. Committee members were appointed to make plans for spring quarter activities. Miss Roma Jean Turner was placed in charge of the spring quarter activities.

Co-chairmen of the Pajama Party to be held in early May are Beth Crandall, and Wana Edens. It was decided that election for next year's officers shall take place during the "sleepless slumber party." In charge of elections are Lorraine Drissel and Norma Reynolds.

The new officers will be formally installed at the spring quarter dinner given near the end of the school year by the old officers.

The traditional Senior breakfast, given in honor of graduating members of Fidelas, will be planned and presided over by LaRue Hoopes. Mrs. Dorothy S.

Drama:

Doressa Paxman To Read Play For Mask Club

Mrs. Doressa Paxman of Provo, who read the three-act play, "Mistletoe Mother," by Felix Johnson in Mask club Monday evening, March 20.

This is one of several readings which are being given as programs for the Mask Club majors. Doressa has done other speech work this school year; those who saw the play will remember her in her characterization of Miss Magdalene in "The Family Portrait."

This year she has served as vice-president of the Junior class, and was nominated by the students for the heart of the Valentine dance.

Drama is not the only art that interests Miss Paxman. She is a music student of the piano, and her knowledge of the steamer-bridge work enables her to work at this during the summer. She also sees well and takes pride in making most of her work.

Both her mother and two older sisters have also majored in speech here at the university. Mrs. Paxman has taught the subjects of French and in American Folklore. Doressa's parents are Mr. and Mrs. W. Monroe Paxman of this city.

"To the Lovely Margaret" and "My Little Darling" by Peggy Oliver were the two one-act plays which were presented in Mask club this week.

The first was directed by Elizabeth Stevenson, and the cast included Jean Spratley, Ray Jones, Clarence Fingerle, Ray Drissel, and Georgia Cullimore Paxman.

Heles Mahay directed the second play, and members participating were Chad Riddle, Lila Marchant, Kathleen Cullimore, Elsie Howell, Anne Greaves, and Sheldon Loury.

White Key Holds Pledge Breakfast

Immediately after pledging Tuesday morning, the White Keys entered the kitchen to make pledges at breakfast in the chophouse of the Joseph Smith building.

Barbara Taylor, chairman of the breakfast, chose S. S. White Key as the first to make a pledge at breakfast in the chophouse of the Joseph Smith building.

Barbara Taylor, chairman of the breakfast, chose S. S. White Key as the first to make a pledge at breakfast in the chophouse of the Joseph Smith building.

Elizabeth "Buffie" Sanders, as toastmistress used the ship idea throughout the breakfast. Responses to her toasts were given by Dorothy Cook Robins, Georgia Cullimore Paxton, and Elsie Greaves.

After a delicious breakfast, White Key songs were sung by the group with Jan Thompson, Barbara Drissel, and Chloe Wead.

Covers were laid for the following: Miss Leona Holbrook, sponsored by Phyllis Jensen, Dorothy Vowles, Elsie Hale, Emma Hayes, Lillie Stewart, Barbara Stevenson, Lora Hilton, Barbara Taylor, Dorothy Cook, Elsie Taylor, Georgia Faust, Elaine Drissel, Gwendolyn Nichols, Ada Moyle, Dorothy Cook, Ruth Christensen, Rheta Robbins, Chloe Friday Weed, Jane Thompson, and Josephine Seaton.

Fielding will make plans for the annual Almond Fashion Tea.

Tonight's meeting will be held at the home of Lorraine Drissel.

BYU Men at War

By Miriam Young

A scoop for the Y NEWS this week comes with the news that Chesley Gordon Peterson, now with the U. S. Army Air Forces in England, is a Brigadier General in the Fighter Command stationed there. When we published the news of General Peterson's advancement to a Colonel we mentioned that according to our knowledge he was the youngest officer in the Army to ever hold that rank. If we were questioned on that statement we can say for certain that he is the youngest ever to ever hold the rank of Brigadier General. At the present time he is twenty-five years of age.

Oliver R. Smith, former faculty member, is now in Casper, Wyoming as Assistant Statistical officer at the air base located there.

Sgt. Jack Gibb, former faculty member and one time student of the Y, is now in the Overseas Replacement Depot at Pennsylvania awaiting shipping orders. Although Sgt. Gibb could not tell us what his overseas assignments would be, he did mention that he would be in the South Pacific when he would receive his orders. Sgt. Gibb spent three months in basic training and was then sent to Idaho. He later returned to Fort Douglas where he did pre-induction classification work until his overseas call came.

Sgt. John M. Landward is stationed at the Hammond General Hospital in Modesto, California doing psychotherapeutic work and psychiatric testing in the Neuropsychiatric Service. Most of the patients there are from the South Pacific battle fronts.

Lt. Carlton F. Culmsee, U.S.N.R., is now stationed at Grande Prairie, Texas. Lt. Culmsee was head of the journalism department and the Extension Division of the school before being given a leave of absence last year to assume his duties with the Navy.

Seen roaming around the campus last week was Captain Glade Jorgenson and his wife. Glade has seen active duty over Africa and is now an instructor at an air field in California. While a student here he was very active in music circles.

Pvt. Wayne Ursenbach is now at Fort Ord, California taking Military Police training in preparation for overseas duty. Wayne was a student here last year and was a member of Lambda Delta Sigma.

Air Cadet Leland J. Davis is now stationed at Thunderbird Field in Arizona, taking the second phase of his flight training. Leland was first stationed at Santa Anna. He was a student here last year and left with the starting of the Army reserves. He was affiliated with the Tropic social unit. Air Cadet Gene Goss is now taking his advanced flight training at Willard Field in Chandler, Arizona. In another month he will be commissioned as a pilot in the U. S. Army Air Forces. Gene will be remembered as the drummer in Wayne Skem's orchestra which specialized in "Romance in Rhythm."

Graduate of 1939, John A. Carver, Jr., is serving as secretary of the Honor Council of Army Air Forces Officers Candidate School at Miami Beach, Florida, holding one of the highest positions in an army officers candidate. Prior to attending O.C.S. Mr. Carver was a permanent technician at Hill Field, Vermont. He will receive his commission sometime this month.

Linn Rockwood, former tennis star on our campus and now a Marine, has left Colorado college and is taking his basic training at Parris Island before he is sent to Quantico, Va. for officer's training.

Because of an oversight we failed to publish a complete list of the fellows who were home on leave as a part of the Junior Prom. Therefore we take this opportunity to publish this list of the fellas who were here from Albuquerque: Dick Jones, George Clark, Mark Robertson, Lee Moulton, Wulford Ford, Young Jack, Dean Dangefender, Jim Ludlow, Bruce Reece, Jack Bonnett, Bruce Dixon, Sheldon McEwan, Wayne Viehfeld, Val Gern, Black, Dan Lambert, Edward Nimer, Russell Sheffield, Blaine Lemmon, Leland K. Baxter, Maurice Boswell, Blaine Williams, and Ken Carter.

Lt. Max D. Mendenhall is now stationed in Britain. Que Jones and Max had the opportunity to get together for part of the time over the winter and share about old times at the Y.

Pvt. Joseph Martin is now an instructor in radio school at Warrensburg, Missouri. He completed his training with the highest grade on the final exam that anyone has ever made on that particular test. Joe graduated from the Y in 1942.

Forty-five Cadets Earn Awards For Good Conduct

Good conduct ribbons were awarded to fifteen cadets of ASTU 3559 at a banquet in their honor last Thursday in the American Legion hall at Jordan Smith building, and at another banquet this evening thirty more soldiers students will be recipients of this honor award.

Major Charles E. Powell, Commandant of Cadets, made the presentation last week to men who had completed a year's service in the armed forces and whose records made them eligible. Tonight he will make the remaining award to men who have earned them.

Last term two such presentations were also made, one on the 15th of January and the other, January 27, at an earlier banquet.

Guests of the cadets last Thursday were members of White Key and Y Calvera, the women's organization.

A program under the direction of Miss Jane Thompson was presented by the cadets.

The 45 men who have earned the award are: Lt. Edward R. Barber, Lt. Alexander, Edwin J. Barard, Douglas L. Bedwin, Louis A. Beinford, Arthur R. Berson, Wallace C. Brinkley, Richard C. Brinkley, Lt. Bruce, Robert O. Bullock, John A. Busch, Neal R. Carpenter, Don E. Carroll, Keith A. Chase, and Connor U. Clements.

Others are: Lt. M. Coffin, Richard F. Cole, William W. Collins, Charles E. Cooper, James W. Coulon, Stanley D. Counterman, William H. Danforth, Laurene E. Duffin, James E. Egan, Lt. Edward G. Ferber, Lt. William F. George, C. Ferber, Jr., William Hall, Mike Horwick, Gregory F. Howard, Lt. James W. Johnson, Robert Keeton, and William M. Keeton.

Independent Team Nabs Title in Basketball Tourney

Overcoming a first-half lead, a strong independent basketball team under the direction of Laurine (Mickey) Mickelson, pushed ahead to cop the 1944 championship in women's intramurals. Playing in the Women's gymnasium on March 9, they succeeded in defeating Alta Mira, champions in the Women's social unit division of the tournament.

The game, which was conceded at the beginning to be "anybody's game," was a scoreless draw with Alta Mira leading during the first half, the first quarter ended with Alta Mira ahead 18-17 and the first half closed with Alta Mira still ahead 25-24.

The independent teams, however, rallied in the second half to roll up a final score of 54 as against 44 for Alta Mira.

High-point gatherers for the winners were Emma Ullock with 27 and Marjorie Lindstrom with 21 for the Independents. Marge Johnson and Mildred Liston, with 22 and 21 respectively, were leading scorers for Alta Mira.

Team members are: Beth Wight, Emma Ullock, Marion Whitney, Grace Theobald, Marjorie Lindstrom, Edna Holt and their captain, Laurine (Mickey) Mickelson.
